

This little dog could not have been born less fortunate. She was caught as a little scavenger in an open field in downtown Los Angeles and brought to our rescue. She was born with grade 5 luxating patellas which left her incapable of walking. The below videos speak for themselves, so have a look....

Before

After

Her surgery was done at Veterinary Surgical Specialists in Tustin by Dr. Sebestyen
November 2013