

This Great Dane, Jackson, came to us with a tail wound.

These are hard to heal as everytime he wags his tail and it hits something it splits back open.